

Visit this Co-lab file and make a copy for yourself by clicking on “File” in the upper left-hand corner, then selecting “Save a copy in Drive”

If you are using Google Co-Lab for this workshop, data files can be uploaded in the “folder” icon section on the left hand side:

Note: this method is NOT secure - under normal circumstances, loading PHI to this would be a security violation. We're using faux data for this exercise though!

For a Co-lab file with all code available within it, visit this file. Please save a copy for yourself and edit/play with the code there!
